CHINESE OUTBOUND INVESTMENT AND TRADE FACILITATION LEGAL FORUM

In order to help Chinese enterprises to better understand the laws and regulations on international investment & trade, to promote the implementation of trade facilitation policy, to enhance the international management capacity, and better participate in the One Belt One Road Initiative, China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) Commercial Law Center and US-China Legal Exchange Foundation (UCLEF) will jointly organize an event- Chinese Outbound Investment and Trade Facilitation Legal Forum on April 11-12,2017 in Nanjing, China

ABOUT CCPIT

Founded in 1952, China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT) is a national foreign trade and investment promotion agency. The CCPIT aims to promote China's international trade and investment. Over the years, it has been committed to advancing foreign trade, two-way investment and economic and technological cooperation. It serves as a significant bridge and platform that facilitates communication and cooperation in the business circles inside and outside China. Please visit www.ccpit.org.cn for more information.

ABOUT UCLEF

The U.S.-China Legal Exchange Foundation (UCLEF) was founded in 2008 and is located in New Jersey in the United States. As an independent 501 (c) (3) non-profit professional organization, UCLEF's mission is to promote, facilitate and strengthen the legal communication and collaboration between China and the United States by bringing together all appropriate resources. Since its inception, UCLEF has worked, in both the United States and China, with prestigious universities, governmental departments and industrial associations to develop a series of conference, exchange and training programs. Please visit www.uschinalegal.org for more information.

We are currently seeking speakers and sponsors for the Chinese Outbound Investment and Trade Facilitation Legal Forum. Please see the attached for the conference information.
